ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

ADAMS, JONES, ROBINSON AND MALONE, CHARTERED

We, the undersigned incorporators, hereby associate ourselves together to form and establish a professional corporation under the laws of the State of Kansas.

FIRST: The name of this corporation is Adams, Jones, Robinson and Malone, Chartered.

SECOND: The location of its registered office in Kansas is 301 American Savings Building, 201 North Main, Wichita, Sedgwick County, Kansas.

THIRD: The name and address of its resident agent in Kansas is Floyd E. Jensen, 301 American Savings Building, 201 North Main, Wichita, Kansas.

FOURTH: This professional corporation is organized for profit and may render only one type of professional service, the practice of law, and shall be deemed to have the following purposes:

(a) To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated;

(b) To purchase, receive, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, insurance or annuities in any form, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof;

(c) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees;

(d) To do all things necessary or incidental to the practice of the profession which the professional corporation is authorized to practice.

FIFTH: This corporation is authorized to issue only one class of stock; the total number of shares shall be One Thousand Five Hundred (1,500); and the par value of each of the shares shall be one Dollar ($1.00).

SIXTH: Shares of the capital stock may be issued only to persons licensed to practice law in the State of Kansas. A shareholder may voluntarily transfer his shares, or part of them, to the corporation or, with the prior written consent of the board of directors as expressed in a resolution, to a person or persons licensed to practice law in the State of Kansas.

No shares of capital stock may be transferred upon the books of the corporation, or issued by it, until there is presented and filed with the secretary of the corporation, a certificate by the Kansas board or organization regulating the practice of law in the state, stating that the person to whom the transfer is to be made, or the shares issued, is duly licensed to practice law in Kansas. Every certificate of stock issued by the corporation shall contain substantially the following provision: "The ownership and transfer of this stock and the rights and obligations of stockholders are subject to the limitations and provisions of the professional corporation law of Kansas."

SEVENTH: No shareholder shall enter into any voting trust agreement, proxy, or any other type of agreement vesting another person other than another shareholder, with authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.

EIGHTH: The price or method of determining a price at which the corporation or its shareholders may purchase the shares of a deceased shareholder, or a shareholder no longer qualified to own shares in the corporation, shall be as determined in the bylaws. If no bylaw provides a price or method to determine a price it shall be determined in accordance with the law.

NINTH: The amount of capital with which this corporation will commence business is One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

TENTH: The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, except as may be required by law.
